

AP Government
Summer Work

Your summer work is to pay attention to, through a variety of media outlets, developments in national, state, and local politics. The assessment portion will come when we get back to school...